

Media Release No :PE/2024/40

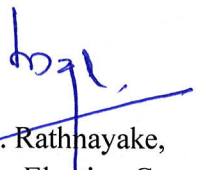

2024.10.24

Parliamentary Election – November 14,2024

Checking the Voter and Marking with the Appropriate Mark

WHEREAS the little finger of the voter's left hand has been marked with the appropriate mark in the Presidential Election held on 21.09.2024 and the thumb of the voter's left hand will be marked with the appropriate mark in the Elpitiya Pradeshiya Sabha election to be held on 26.10.2024, in order to address the potential issues with marking the voter with the appropriate mark as per section 38(3)(b) of the Parliamentary Elections Act No. 1 of 1981, the index finger of the voter's left hand will be marked with the appropriate mark in the parliamentary election to be held on 14.11.2024.

It is informed that if the voter does not have the index finger on his left hand, the thumb or any other finger of his right hand will be marked with the appropriate mark.

R.M.A.L. Rathnayake,
Chairman, Election Commission
(For the Election Commission)