

UNITED PEOPLE'S PARTY

PREAMBLE

The United People's Party is dedicated to the proposition that for harmonious and sustainable development of Sri Lanka, an unequivocal recognition and understanding of the aspirations and rights of the different ethnic, religious and cultural identities of its people is of vital importance.

The United People's Party is further committed to the view that human dignity is the underlying principle of a democratic society and the purpose of Political Organization is to guarantee equal opportunity to facilitate the full expression of this dignity. Accordingly, the United People's Party believes that the guarantee of fundamental rights and freedom of all persons, equality under the law, and the practice of these essential values without discrimination is axiomatic to the growth and development of Sri Lanka and its people.

United People's Party will devote itself to the removal of social inequality and to bringing justice to the under privileged sections of Society. It will firmly oppose any attempts to whittle away hard won rights of Workers and will agitate for the maintenance of labour standards and the guarantee of health and safety measures for Workers.

United People's Party will agitate for the reorganization of the present poverty alleviation programme, so that it reaches all sections of those who need support.

The United People's Party firmly believes that the fullest realization of human dignity within the framework of a democratic system requires access to information. Citizens should be empowered and provided opportunities to participate in the assessment of Public Policy.

The United People's Party is firmly committed to intra-party democracy and the sharing of information as essential elements of a Democratic Political System. Accordingly, the United People's Party will pay special attention to the development of a Democratic Political Culture within the party and the participation of its members in Determination' Party Policy. United People's Party believes that political parties must meet the ordinary standards of accountability and openness demanded of other institutions.

OBJECTIVES

To build a cohesive democratic party that will function on the basis of Principles, Policies and long term Objectives.

To assist and promote the development of active Branches at the District level.

To work in collaboration with other Parties and Organizations on commonly accepted programmes and policies.

To give utmost support to efforts aimed at bringing peace and harmony among the various communities in the country.

To promote and support all measures for economic, political, social and cultural development of the people of Sri Lanka.

To strive for introduction of special affirmative action to enable the Plantation Tamil Workers community to liberate itself from its long persistent backwardness to enter the mainstream of national life.

To advocate and support all measures for Educational Advancement and Human Resource Development that will reach all sections of the population equitably with due consideration for special measures to uplift the Indian origin Tamil Community the majority of whom are far behind national levels.

To agitate for ending of corruption and bribery and the establishment of good governance. Existing institutional structures must be improved.

To promote bi-lateral issue based discussion between the Industrial Partners, i.e. the Management and Workers Unions, to ensure the overall interests of the Industry. A new culture of conflict resolution in Industry needs to be developed in order to ensure rapid growth and due consideration for social welfare of Workers.
