Press Release No. : 2026/06

2026.11.13

Discussion Held by the Election Commission with Representatives of the Sri Lanka Freedom Party on 06.11.2026

The Sri Lanka Freedom Party continues to be a recognized political party. However, since 2025, due to a dispute regarding the post of Secretary that arose between rival sections, the Party has been designated as a party with a dispute relating to the post of Secretary.

Upon receipt of requests to resolve this issue, the relevant factions were summoned to the Election Commission on 06.11.2026 for a discussion in this regard. At the said discussion, it was decided with the agreement of both parties that it would be appropriate to arrive at a decision regarding the dispute relating to the post of Secretary after a decision is delivered in the case currently being heard before the Civil Appellate High Court of Western Province.

This announcement is issued because of false media reports claiming that the Sri Lanka Freedom Party is not a recognized political party.
